Dedication...

We, the class of 2015, dedicate this yearbook to our classmate and friend, Patrick Gill Jr.

Patrick was a three-season athlete in football, hockey, and lacrosse, a friend, a son, a brother and a face of Sachem pride. Our entire town of Winchester, especially the Class of 2015, will forever remember Pat's laughter, energy, and optimism.

Letter from the Editors

Dear Class of 2015 and students and faculty of WHS,

For the past twelve months, we have been planning and designing the book you are holding in your hands, and we are so happy to finally share it with you! We hope all of you, especially the seniors, treasure and love this yearbook as much as we have loved putting it together for you.

When we set out to make this book, our goal was to create something unique and unforgettable that would not only leave the senior class with a cherished goodbye gift, but also provide the WHS community with a trip down memory lane. As the front cover says, in this yearbook, we are "Turning Back the Clock...One Last Time", and have made every effort to keep a throwback theme through the pages. With the construction of our new school building having just started at the beginning of this academic year, we felt this was the time to look back and remember our school, in its original form, one last time. And not just recall moments from this past year, but also stories from decades past told through sepia-toned pictures. Photographs from earlier yearbooks placed alongside pictures of today, are fun and entertaining as you compare the fashion and hairstyles of now and then. It also is a window to the evolution of our high school and even of our town. Make sure to check these throwback pictures in the sports and faculty sections, as well as the back cover of the yearbook. Flipping through the pages, see how much Winchester and our school have changed over the decades, and also how they have remained the same!

A special message for all seniors: CONGRATULATIONS! Our time at WHS has been filled with joy and sorrow, laughter and tears, certainty and anxiety; but through the highs and lows, we have supported each other and overcome every obstacle together. As a group, that is perhaps the greatest strength of the class of 2015. We wish each and every one the very best in all your future endeavors.

To the classes of 2016, 2017, 2018: we hope that your remaining time at WHS is filled with lots of homework and projects, and sleepless nights and long tests (just kidding!), along with much success and fond memories. But first, good luck making it through the construction!

Finally, as editors, we are grateful for the opportunity to capture many precious moments at WHS in this yearbook. Despite the long hours, we have truly enjoyed the process. We will miss our Monday afternoon meetings, and working with our yearbook staff members, from the freshmen to the seniors, who believed in the vision for this book, and helped translate ideas into reality. Without their hard work and constant support, we would not have been able to produce this book. On behalf of the entire yearbook staff, we are proud to present the 2014-2015 Winchester High School Yearbook.

Sincerely,
Riddhi Sarkar and Grace Huang
Co-Editors-in-Chief

To my beautiful sister Sarina, Wow! College, eh? I never thought you would actually graduate HS. I assumed you would follow in the footsteps of our great mentor and leader, SpongeBob SquarePants, and stay in boating school for the remainder of your academic career. I can no longer say "it's a college thing, you wouldn't get it" or "college kids only" or "make me food, you peasant" the only real silver lining is that I can once again make fun of you for being a "stooped freshman" and then a "doph-o-more" the following year. Well, even though I doubted you, I am proud of you and I love you Rina!! Your Brother Maboo Sarina, you have been like a sister to me for the past 15 years and I cannot thank you enough for that. Even though Mikey and I didn't let you roll with us to all the cool parties I'm sure you will experience that in college! You aren't my favorite sibling but you sure come in close second for all the late night pick-ups and hair holding, I mean hand holding...All "jokes" aside I don't know what I'm going to do without my best friend, as B.O.B. would say "now look back at it" look back at all the great times we had and don't forget them. I love you so much, be good.

The struggles I'm facing
The chances I'm taking
Sometimes might knock me down
But no, I'm not breaking

I may not know it
But these are the moments that
I'm gonna remember most,
Just gotta keep going

And I, I got to be strong Just keep pushing on

'Cause there's always gonna be another mountain

I'm always gonna wanna make it move Always gonna be an uphill battle Sometimes I'm gonna have to lose

Ain't about how fast I get there Ain't about what's waiting on the other side It's the climb.

A LOOK AT WHAT HAPPENED DURING THE 2014-2015 SCHOOL YEAR

A YEAR CAPTURED

Some parts of the year were mysterious, others were awesome and empowering, and still others — tragic.

Take a look back at this collection of the year's highs and lows, from music, science and weather to fashion trends, technology and sports, and lots of things in between.

SHIFTING POWER...

INDIA'S NEW LEADER President Pranab Mukherjee appointed Narendra Modi as the new Prime Minister, succeeding Manmohan Singh. UNEASINESS AFFECTS OTHER NATIONS Problematic situations in Russia fueled by a less than desirable economic state and varying opinions of immigration challenges — emphasized struggles within the country and caused other nations to react. The unrest led to Sweden's plan to re-train citizens previously enlisted in the Swedish army. SCOTLAND REMAINS Given the chance to be an independent nation, 55% of Scottish citizens voted to remain a part of the United Kingdom. Celebrating ensued after new life was given to a nation contemplating succession. CUBA AND U.S. MAKE AMENDS President Obama restored full diplomatic relations between Cuba after 50 years. This led to the release of suspected American spy Alan Cross who was being held in a Cuban prison. Obama, in turn, released three Cuban spies who had been imprisoned for years.

TALK ABOUT SUCCESS

Swift History and Some Lovable Brits

There was no denying the crazy success generated in 2014 by Taylor Swift, Sam Smith, Ed Sheeran and One Direction — they all continued making headlines (the good kind). Swift made history as "Blank Space" replaced "Shake It Off" on Billboard's Top 100; she was the only female to ever accomplish this. Her newest album, 1989, sold more than one million copies its first week. And there was clearly something about the British. One Direction had the highest grossing tour, raking in $131.5 million in just the first six months of 2014. Fellow Brits Sam Smith and Ed Sheeran were big winners during awards season. Smith took home four Grammys — Record of the Year and Song of the Year for Stay with Me, Best New Artist and Best Pop Vocal Album. Finally, Ed Sheeran won numerous awards, namely People's Choice Favorite Male Artist, Favorite Album for X, Teen Choice Male Artist and MTV VMA's Best Male Video for "Sing" with Pharrell Williams.

2014 was a busy and Australian rock band, The group took home the Teen Choice Breakout Group award, American of the Year, released a self-titled debut album a tour. I'M SO FANCY artist Iggy Azalea won a Teen Choice Award and an AMA for Favorite Hip-Hop Artist. Her single, "Fancy" was named Best Song by iTunes and won Teen Choice Award's R&B/hip-hop song.

THEY LOOK SO PERFECT

SUPER BOWL STARDOM Katy Perry performed successful year for Super Bowl XLIX's halftime show. She entered on a 5 Seconds of Summer. huge prismed, metal tiger, but the surprises didn't end there. Missy Elliott joined Perry to perform Music Award's New Artist a set of three hits. Elliott had not produced an album since 2005 which in July and wrapped up led many to question who she even was. QUEEN Australian hip-hop BEY Beyonce's successes continued. She was People's Choice Award, a named iTunes Best Artist, opened for the Grammys - where she won both Best R&B Song and Performance — renewed her vows with Jay Z, and starred in the 17-city "On the Run" tour.

DEATH WITH DIGNITY

Brittany Maynard was a 29-year-old Californian who learned that her brain cancer would ultimately kill her. She was told her condition would only worsen, so she decided that death with dignity was the best option. Her family relocated to Oregon, one of just three states that honored this decision, where she ended her life on November 1, 2014. Before her death, she worked closely with Compassion & Choices, an end-of-life choice advocacy group, in hopes to make choice an option for other terminally ill individuals.

GUN CONTROL & MENTAL HEALTH

Due to school shootings like the one at Sandy Hook Elementary and more than 20 others in the two years since, gun control became an issue that demanded attention. But the focus turned toward mental health and the attention it deserved in regard to tragic shootings. It was perplexing to some that only 27 states increased funding for mental health in 2014. There were hopes that other states would pattern plans like Virginia, Minnesota and Wisconsin in their efforts to provide proactive mental health services for clients of all ages.

Raising Awareness ALS CHALLENGE Social media allowed the "Ice Bucket Challenge" to go viral. Designed to raise awareness of ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease), people would post a video of themselves dumping ice water over their heads and then challenge someone else to do the same or alternatively, donate money to The ALS Association. The campaign raised more than $220 million worldwide.

African American teen in Ferguson, Missouri, was shot and killed by white police officer Darren Wilson in August. Violent and ongoing riots erupted in Ferguson and other U.S. cities, especially after the jury decided not to indict Officer Wilson. In Ferguson, windows and storefronts were shattered, stores were looted, shots were fired and police squad cars were set aflame. Crowds gathered In other parts of the country to protest, claiming that justice had not been served. To make matters worse, the events in Ferguson occurred just three weeks after 43-year-old Eric Garner was approached by officers in New York who observed him selling untaxed cigarettes. Garner reportedly had his hands in the air for police, but was put into a chokehold and thrown to the ground where he muttered, "I can't breathe!" After lying motionless on the ground, Garner, an asthmatic, died on the way to the hospital. Protests nationwide regarding his death followed — including one with his family marching alongside Reverend Al Sharpton in Upper Manhattan calling for a full investigation of his death.

NOT THE NORM

Volcanic Action in Hawaii and Iceland

Lava from the Bardarbunga volcano flowed after a series of earthquakes in late August, expanding the size of Iceland. The spreading of the Eurasian and North American tectonic plates allowed lava to fill the gap, increasing Iceland's land area; enough molten rock was released to cover an NFL football field every 5.5 minutes. Unlike the eruption in Hawaii, no one lived near Bardarbunga's lava flow. Mount Kilauea on Hawaii's 'Big Island', one of the world's most active volcanos, erupted in June, threatening surrounding communities with a continuous river of lava. It surged toward the town of Pahoa causing most residents to evacuate, as there were few other options. Gravel roads were built as escape routes, but some residents requested to watch their homes burn in order to cope with the loss.

Spiraling Sports Gontroversies NASCAR, NBA and NFL found themselves surrounded by controversy accompanied by inevitable attention, opinions and the need for decisions to be made. NBA Commissioner Adam Silver decided to ban Sterling from the NBA for life, fined him the maximum of $2.5 million and forced him to sell the team. Three-time NASCAR Sprint Cup Series Champion Tony Stewart was involved in an accident on a dirt track in New York in which his car struck and killed 20-year-old driver Kevin Ward. Controversy continued following an Ontario County grand jury's decision not to indict Stewart after finding no evidence that he actually committed a crime. Domestic violence incidents unveiled within the NFL pushed Commissioner Roger Goodell to enact tougher penalties for such behavior through new policies that held players more accountable for their actions, with little to no gray area.

north korean hack on sony

DRAMA WITH THE INTERVIEW

Sony Pictures was hacked in late November and North Korea was immediately blamed because of Sony's plan to release the comedy, The Interview, featuring an assassination attempt on supreme leader Kim Jong Un. North Korea denied the claim, but the FBI later confirmed that they were indeed behind the hack. Sony decided not to release the film after North Korea threatened violent attacks on the U.S. When Obama called the hack an act of cyber vandalism, the film was shown on Christmas Day in 330 independent theaters and was available for streaming online for just $5.99. The movie made $15 million in its first four days of release.
